6	Manskarwad Pratiksha Sanjay	LLB 3 Yrs	1323136376	Dr. Parajbhao Deshmukh College of Law, Amravati,	Guidance regarding admission in 3rd round bearing application	College admission committee should prepare a report stating that college has considered the marks filled in by the candidate in CAP form. But actual percentage of the candidate is more than the filled in marks. hence, college committee has considered the candidate for admission. College should also remember that the admission is first considered on the basis of CET Score & then Degree marks. Also most of the Engineering University in Maharashtra & India, IIT, MIT, NIT etc does not mention the marks on their mark sheet, nor they give any conversion formula to calculate the percentage & marks. Hence, it is very difficult for the candidate who have passed from such esteemed institutions. College should take a positive decision & do the needful.

Kindly consider the candidate for admission if he/she has filled the correct marks in Cap form & same has been reflected in Conversion certificate is uploaded. It is not the fault of the candidate. Hence should be considered for admission. Kindly admit if details filled in are correct.
